Question 2.01

Where is the Parietal lobe?

Organize Assignments

Find your homework organized in the same place as the rest of your course materials.

Assignments are layered with hints and feedback so you get direction even when I'm not present.

The screenshot displays the Top Hat interface for a Macroeconomics 101 course. The header is dark purple with the course name and a logo. The main content area is titled "Question 2.02" and features a graph with a red curve and four points labeled A, B, C, and D. Below the graph are four input fields for answers A, B, C, and D. A smartphone icon on the left shows a smaller version of the same question interface.

The screenshot shows the Top Hat website homepage. The navigation bar includes the Top Hat logo, menu items for Product, Why Top Hat?, Pricing, For Institutions, and Teaching Resources, a search icon, and buttons for Signup, Login, and Try It Free. The main content area features a dark blue background with the headline "Awaken Curiosity This Fall" and a sub-headline "Get students to lean into learning with the all-in-one teaching platform purpose-built to motivate, engage and connect with students". Below this are buttons for "Create Free Account" and "Request a Demo". A video player shows a man speaking, with a large play button and a "Signup" callout box overlaid. At the bottom, four icons represent key benefits: "Help students learn better live", "Keep students motivated outside of class", "Give your LMS the perfect partner", and "Get personalized, dedicated support".
